State Commander Says One Aim of Legion Should be to Perpetuate Memory of Comrades

SPEAKS AT SMOKER SUNDAY.

Community House Form of Memorial Advocated—Roster of Ex-Service Men to be Compiled

More than one hundred former service men attended the smoker given by Rush post No. 150 of the American Legion in the court house assembly room Sunday afternoon and heard a splendid address by Raymond Springer of Connersville, state commander, outlining the aims and principles of the Legion.

More than a score of new members were obtained at the meeting and steps were taken, with the appointment of a committee for the purpose, to compile a roster of all the Rush county men who served during the world war.

Judge Springer showed some of the things a Legion post could do in a community of this size and how it could be of immense service to all the people of the county.

One of the first aims of the post should be to perpetuate the memory of the men from Rush county who gave their lives for their country during the war, the speaker said.
The organization can also give the state organization ideas as to legislation needed, he declared, and can likewise see that all former soldiers are taken care of in the matter of war risk insurance and rehabilitation.

Judge Springer pointed out that one of the best methods of keeping sacred the memory of the men who sacrificed their lives during the war, is a memorial of some sort. He said that a Community House is a form of memorial which Legion posts in other communities will attempt to erect, with the aid of other citizens, and that it is one of the best means of keeping green the memory of departed comrades, because it serves a double purpose in that it is of immense benefit to the community.

Judge Springer said that the Fayette county post of the Legion had plans to start a campaign for a Community House in Connersville.

Officers of the temporary organization were gratified at the attendance yesterday, which was unusually good in the face of such handleups as extremely cold weather and bad roads which prevented many men from remote parts of the county attending.

Rush post now has more than 100 members and hopes to increase this number materially in the next few weeks. It will be possible to conduct the campaign more intelligently when a roster of former soldiers is obtained.

CEDRIC STANDS BY TRANSPORT POWHATAN

Will Transfer Passengers From Disabled Vessel, According to a Wireless Message

BRITISH STEAMER IS NEARBY

(By United Press.)

Boston, Mass., Jan. 19.—Wireless reports at the naval yards here this afternoon said the White Star liner Cedric was standing by the disabled transport Powhatan.

The Cedric is waiting for the opportunity to effect transfer of the Powhatan's 271 passengers, the wireless message said.

The British steamer Bardic is now standing by the disabled vessel, the message said, and will tow her to the nearest port.

The Powhatan is not in as dangerous position as first believed.
Passengers of the vessel were experiencing inconvenience from the lack of heat, the message said. Water in the vessel's hold had extinguished her fires.

It was hoped the passengers may be transferred to the Cedric by night.

TO SUPPORT 3 ORPHANS

Manilla M. E. Congregation Makes Pledge Following Meeting Sunday

The Rev. L. E. Brown spoke to a large and interested audience at the Manilla M. E. church in the interests of the "Support an Orphan" campaign yesterday afternoon, and following the address, the congregation pledged itself to support three orphan children of Armenia for a year. It is estimated that $400 a year will keep a little Armenian child whose parents are dead.

The Rev. Mr. Brown was accompanied by Walter E. Frazee, county chairman, who explained the plan of the campaign and what was expected of Rush county.

DANIELS DENIES CHARGE BY SIMMS

Declares He Did Not Say United States Would as Soon Fight British as Germans

WRITES TO CHAIRMAN PAGE

Full Investigation of Conduct of Navy Will be Made When Subcommittee Finishes

(By United Press.)

London, Jan. 19.—The "exhibition of Secretary Daniels in relations between the United States and Great Britain, all along have struck onlookers as being on the north side of friendly," the Pall-Mall Gazette declared today.

Commenting on Admiral Simms' statement before the senate naval affairs committee, the newspaper declared if congress insists upon an investigation, "we ought to have some interesting disclosures."

Washington, Jan. 19.—Fear that England would be misled over the statement of Secretary Daniels, who told Admiral Simms that the United States would as soon fight the British as the Germans, prompted Daniels to write to Chairman Page of the senate sub-committee, denying he had made the recommendation, he said today.

His letter was written on the recommendation of a high official of the American diplomatic service, Daniels said.

This diplomat feared that should Simms statement go unanswered, a serious impression might be created in England.

Since it might be some time before he is called the sub-committee, Daniels decided to write to Page.

The senate naval committee instructed the sub-committee investigating the naval awards to proceed with that inquiry until it is completed, and then a broader investigation of the conduct of the naval affairs during the war, caused by Simms letter to Daniels, would be made.

A complete investigation of the management of the navy department during the war was asked as the result of the disclosure by Admiral William Simms, testifying before the senate sub-committee regarding the awards and decorations.

The statement by Simms that he had been left at London with one aid for four months and that his parting order had been not to let the British "pull the wool over your eyes. We would as soon fight the British as the Germans," so aroused republican members of the Hale subcommittee that the senate called the full committee to get additional authority to make a sweeping investigation.

It was charged through a declaration of war was imminent long before it was made, the navy department had made no plans or policies, that it did not announce its policy for three months after the war was declared, that it did not enter the war wholeheartedly for some time, that the commanding officers were not allowed to select important subordinates, that the navy department acted on cases on which it could not have made full investigation, and did not rely on the judgment of experienced men.

BLANKS ARE READY FOR DISTRIBUTION

Income Tax Season Will Open on Thursday and Returns May be Filed Any Time up to Mar. 15

RESTS WITH THE INDIVIDUAL

Each Person Must Determine Whether or Not it is Necessary to Make a Return

The federal income tax season opens Thursday with the distribution of the forms for personal returns from the offices of collector of internal revenue.

From then until the bell rings on the night of March 15, the annual returns covering income for 1919 will be figured out and filed by citizens and residents, together with payments of tax due.

The burden of fulfilling this obligation is laid by law squarely on the shoulders of those who are American citizens or residents. Every person must determine for himself whether his net income for 1919 figured according to the revenue law was sufficient in amount to require a return.

If he is single, a return is required if his net income for 1919 was $1000 or over. A widow or widower is classed as a single person. A man or woman living apart from his wife or husband is also classed as a single person.

If he was married and living with his wife on Dec. 31, a return is required if his net income for 1919 was $2000, or over. In his net income he must include that of his wife and minor children if any.

If a tax is due on his income, he must take payment with his return.
This payment may be made in whole or in part if the tax due. At least one quarter of the tax must accompany the return.

The filing and paying must be done before midnight of March 15, or he is classed as a delinquent and is subject to severe penalties.

Two forms will be distributed for personal returns. Form 1040 A is intended for use by a person whose net income does not exceed $5000. A larger form, 1040, is intended for each person having a net income in excess of $5000. Both of these forms are now obtainable at internal revenue offices, and at some banks and postoffices.

It is urged by the internal revenue bureau that taxpayers obtain their blanks as soon as possible. Failure to have a blank form at hand for an eleventh-hour return will not relieve a person of penalty for failure to comply with the law.

Each form contains instructions for preparing and filing the return and these should be carefully read and strictly observed.

WILL SHOW VALUE OF RAISING SHEEP HERE

Demonstration Will be Held at James Scholl Farm South of Glenwood Tuesday at 2 P. M.

MR. SCHOLL KEEPS RECORD.

A sheep production demonstration meeting has been scheduled for Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the James Scholl farm one mile south of Glenwood, to study the methods employed by Mr. Scholl.

Mr. Scholl has kept records during the past year in cooperation with the Rush County Farmers' association. An effort is being made to determine the profits to be obtained in keeping sheep under Rush county conditions and Mr. Scholl's records show a net profit above feed, labor interest taxes, barn room etc., of over $6 per head.

Claud Harper, a sheep specialist, will be present to give a talk on profits to be realized from sheep. All who are interested in sheep or may be interested are invited to meet at Mr. Scholl's.

NIGHT SERMON IS THE CLIMAX

Dr. W. P. McGarey Addresses Three Large Audiences During Day
—Will Leave Thursday

The service at the First United Presbyterian church last night was the climax of a great day. The decisions during the day, and at the evening service, made a total of 67 during the first five days of the campaign, a rather remarkable record.

The sermon yesterday morning was a message of cheer to Christian workers, bidding them lift up their hearts and march forward with faith in the Christ, and in His message, and in His final triumph.

The afternoon message to the great union crowd from the different churches of the city, eloquently reviewed the part of the different nations in the great World War, and deduced the clear and emphatic conclusion, that the hope of the future lies not in law, nor education, nor charity, nor brotherhood, nor democracy, but in old fashioned godliness; and that unless we keep the "home fires" of religion burning, we have committed treason to the boys who sleep in Flanders fields.

The evening sermon on "The Return of the Banished," was heard by another crowd that filled the entire first floor of the church, and was a presentation of the truth, that the death of Christ was a moral necessity, and that God Himself can not save and forgive a man except as the man accepts personally what was done on Calvary. No draft on God will be honored unless it is countersigned by the hand that was nailed to the cross, the evangelist said.

In the introductory part of the service Dr. McGarey presented some communication which had come to him—one advising the young women to practice economy; another warning them against marrying a man to reform him, and a third, advising them to "Put the Paint on the Houses." He has received other communications giving advice to young men, which he will present on Tuesday night, when the high school students are to be present.

In response to Evangelist Mc-Garey's question, as to what Rushville folk deem the most prevalent sin of our community, one said
"Spiritual Indifference," another "Selfishness," another "Profiteering," another "Sabbath Desecration," "Gossip" and "Family Jars," also came in for attention. Dr. Mc-Garey will leave Thursday.

eral years in Rushville, moving only a few months ago to the farm near farm, northeast of this city. The deceased is survived by a widow and one son, Charley. He was a member of the Red Men and Odd Fellows

TO LAUNCH DRIVE FOR NEW MEMBERS

Officers of Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations Complete
The Preliminaries

CAMPAIGN TO BE STATE WIDE

Data is Compiled For Poster Showing What Organization Has Accomplished in Short Time

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 19.—All of the preliminary arrangements have been made by the officers of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' Associations for launching a statewide membership drive which is to be carried on through the co-operation of the county and township units. Special State organizers will be assigned upon request for different counties and will work through the district directors, and teams will be formed in every township and county to carry on the campaign for new members.

Lewis Taylor, general secretary of the State Federation, has compiled data for a poster which is to be used in every township of Indiana. Salient features of the need of a strong organization of farmers are brought out as well as many of the accomplishments gained through presenting an organized front.

Under the title "Farmers," Mr.
Taylor points out that they have lost two billion dollars on grain and live stock since August 1; have made all purchases on a rising market; have felt the power of organized greed in the H. C. of L. fight; have been unable as individuals to remedy these evils; know that high paid labor wants cheap food and short days; know that short hours mean less production and higher prices; know that the country needs industrial stability, and know that the solution is up to us (the farmers).

Under the heading of "Organization," Mr. Taylor calls attention that it saved Indiana farmers two hundred thousand dollars on binder twine; saved thousands of dollars on wool clip; saved a state-wide quarantine on the wheat crop; forced the repeal of the daylight saving law; forced reconsideration of unjust assessments; appointed a permanent live stock committee to improve live stock marketing; appointed legislative committee to compel legislation in behalf of farmers; compelled improvements in the Indianapolis stock yards, and placed live stock cars for farmers when other methods failed. The plea is ended with "these are facts Mr.
Farmer, this organization needs you."

In all of the speeches being made by John G. Brown, Everett McClure, Maurice Douglas, Lewis Taylor and William Bosson, state officers, the point is being emphasized that to obtain the best results the farmers must present a united front with a strong membership, not in certain sections, but throughout Indiana.

TWO DEAD IN EXPLOSION

East Chicago, Ind., Jan. 19.— With two dead and at least two missing, the police and military officials were searching the wreckage of the Interstate Steel Mills today, following an explosion this morning when two batteries of a boiler room blew up. Less than ten men were working in that department at the time of the explosion. Some of the workers have not yet been found.

MILLING COMPANY IS INCORPORATED

New Concern, With Capital Stock of $60,000, Will Conduct Mill and Elevator at Milroy

ORGANIZED BY T. E. ALLEN.

Indianapolis Flour Salesman Interests Kentucky and West Virginia Capitals in Business.

Articles of incorporation have been filed in the recorder's office here by the Milroy Milling company, a corporation which has been formed by Indiana, Kentucky and West Virginia men, with capital stock of $60,000, to operate a flour mill and elevator at Milroy.

The company has purchased the old Bottorff mill at Milroy and will have it in operation just as soon as repairs are made on the gas engine.

The capital stock is composed of six hundred shares with a par value of $100 a share. The mill was purchased of the Acme-Evans company.

The directors and incorporators are: Thomas E. Allen of Indianapolis; Frazier G. Hunt of Lancaster, Ky., who has already moved to Milroy; George F. Brown, a wholesale feed man of Charleston, W.
Va.; Moses F. Qualls, a banker of Olive Hill, Ky.; Nimrod Coburn of Graham, Ky., and Mr. Thornton of Charleston, W. Va.

The company was organized by Mr. Allen, who was formerly a traveling salesman for the Acme-Evans company, which last owned the mill.
They bought it from the Acme-Jones company, which came into possession of the property after Thomas E. Bottorff of Milroy died.

The mill is a very valuable property and was erected many years ago by a stock company composed of several farmers living in the vicinity of Milroy. They did not make a success of the mill and sold out to Mr. Bottorff.

The avowed purpose of the organization, according to the articles of incorporation, is "to buy, lease, own and sell lands, buildings and machinery necessary to operate a flouring mill, warehouse, feed store, agencies and office; to buy and sell export and import grains of all kinds; to manufacture, buy and sell, import and export feeds, flour, meal and milled products of all kinds; to buy and sell, own, maintain and operate flouring mills, feed mills, elevators, warehouses, feed stores, offices and agencies for the purpose of handling flour, meal, commercial feeds and grain of all kinds; to buy and sell stocks and bonds of other corporations engaged in the same line of business; and to buy, hold, own and transfer any real estate or personal property that may be necessary to carry on the business."

Judging from these articles, the company will carry on an extensive trade outside of the territory in the vicinity of the mill.

PASSING OF SENTENCE DELAYED TILL FRIDAY

Motion For New Trial For Harry S.
New Results in Postponement
By The Judge

VERDICT IRREGULAR, CHARGE

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 19.—
Passing of sentence on Harry S.
New, reputed son of United States Senator New of Indiana, was postponed today until Friday morning at ten o'clock.

Filing of a motion for a new trial was the cause of postponement.
The motion for the new trial alleged that evidence outside of court records was considered by the jury and that the verdict reached was by irregular methods and by lot, and that it was not in accordance with any evidence presented at the trial.

Stress is laid on the note which the jury sent Judge Craig, after the verdict was rendered, asking that New be sent to an asylum for insane persons, before he was sent to the penitentiary.

Garey will give his own opinion Wednesday night in his sermon on "Your City's Most Prevalent Sin."

The meetings will close on Thursday night. Next Sabbath morning the congregation will observe the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, when all who are ready to enter the church will be publicly received. A splendid spirit prevails and the people of the local church very much appreciate the co-operation upon the part of the members of the other churches.

Special music was furnished yesterday afternoon by Mrs. George Wilse and Pearl Wamsley and last night by Mr. Wamsley, Mrs. Mert Wolcott, Mrs. Earl Moore and Harry Lucas.

Tonight the subject will be "A Story From Camp Israel" and the program will include special music.

The business men are urged to go to the directors' room of the Rushville National bank at 12 (noon) each day, for ten minutes of prayer.

Township committeemen already appointed to compile this roster are as follows: Walker, Ross Brown; Orange, Roy McAhren; Anderson, Willard Colter; Jackson, Willard Gray; Union, Herschel Peters; Noble, Bert West.

Committeemen will be appointed for each political precinct in Rushville township on account of the population in this township being so much larger.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes—no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that natural buoyancy which all should enjoy by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are known by their olive color. 10c and 25c.

PATRIOT PRIMER FOR FOREIGNERS

Simple Story of Our Nation Told by Catholic Council to New Citizens.

Washington.—As ammunition in its nation-wide fight for civic education of the nine million foreign-born and illiterate people in the United States, the National Catholic War Council has issued a patriotic primer, entitled "The Fundamentals of Citizenship," from its headquarters in this city. In less than fifty pages of short, simple sentences the history and idea of American democracy as well as the needs and rights of its people are outlined in this little book, with brief explanations of such subjects as public education, health, legislation, representation, the courts, foreign relations, fraud prevention, insurance, taxation, naturalization and duties of citizenship. Translated into foreign languages or quoted by thousands of the trained native speakers who are enlisted in this civic campaign, the contents of this handbook on American democracy will be placed before every man, woman and child in this country whose civic ignorance might make them easy prey for Bolshevik propaganda. It includes copies of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

Declaring that "our country is the land of freedom and opportunity" and that a knowledge of its Constitution is necessary to the American-born as well as to the foreign-born "if they, too, are to take up the task of faithful citizenship," this primer of patriotism devotes itself at the outset to "the general work of reconstruction in citizenship." It explains that "the citizen who does not possess some knowledge of our democratic institutions may easily become the prey of the demagogue or of persons who are anxious to advance their own interests at the expense of the people."

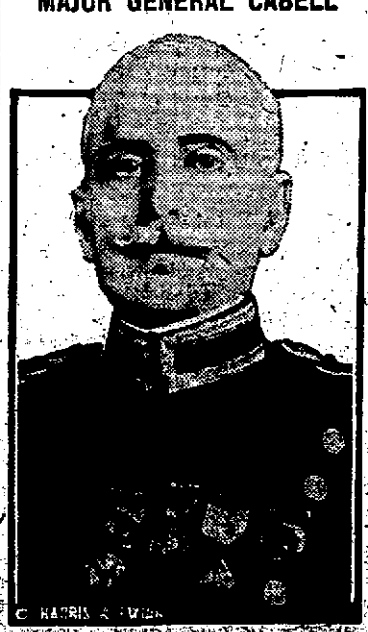

"Democracy requires of each man a great respect for order, a more unselfish consideration of every man's rights and advantage," asserts this new pamphlet under the heading "The Needs of the People." "Each citizen is responsible for the conduct of the Government. He is part of the state, not merely a subject of it. The Government is his. If it is bad it is his fault. He has put power into the wrong hands."

"The first duty of every citizen is to vote at every election," it is declared in a chapter on "The Citizen's Part." "He has no right to shirk this simple duty. No one has a right to complain about how things are done if he fails to vote. It is not fair play to the rest of the people when any man does not help to do the work which benefits all. Every citizen should study public questions enough to vote wisely, and he should take the time, above all things, to learn about the men who are to be voted for as public officers. He should follow only those leaders who are true to the people's interest."

After sketching the rise of democracy in this country and the part taken in it by various foreign leaders the pamphlet says: "The European struggle for liberty is marked oftentimes by terrible injustice, by disrespect for law, by public disorder and public disaster. In its history injustice is often revenged by injustice, not overcome by equality of opportunity. We see a noteworthy and terrible example of license—not liberty—in Russia today. All these attempts are endeavors after liberty and in that measure are praiseworthy. When they grow to lawlessness they must be condemned by every lover of democracy."

Millions of copies of this patriotic primer will be printed and distributed not only in the channels of this civic education campaign of the National Catholic War Council, but through every civic agency in the work of which it would prove of value.

Seattle, Wash., Post Intelligencer:—"Much that the Catholic War Council asks for labor in the name of social justice, in its annual report, is not only desirable but realizable."

Jordan Issues Plea for Cooperation on Part of World

Stanford, University, Cal., Jan. 19.—Celebrating his 69th birthday today, David Starr Jordan issued a plea for co-operation and conciliation on the part of the world.

"In these later days," he said, "the whole earth has been overborne by the monster of unbridled force. A storm still more dire than our own civil war has swept over us. And the mangled world will save itself only by getting together: conciliation and co-operation—the lesson of all history."

Dr. Jordan is chancellor emeritus of Stanford University.

HOME MADE RECIPE CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Aroine and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

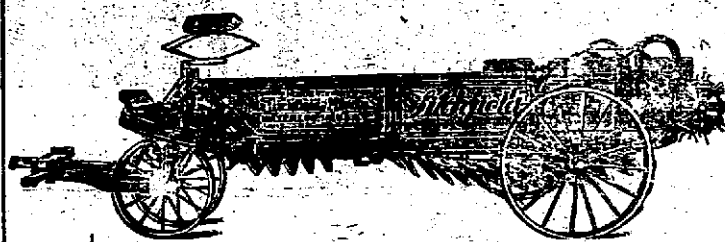

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand or can easily get it for you. Seven a day for seven days. Wonderful results.

HOWA HORSE TALKS

If horses could talk, we would get a few of these dumb beasts around us to help sell the "Rushville Special" Spreader. If these dumb beasts could speak the human language, horses would be the best advertisements we have.

A man who thinks anything of his horses, can't help liking this spreader if he will once mount the seat and put his horses in front of him and see them work in the modern three-horse hitch. With this equipment every horse travels without the least side draft, not a tug pulling a bit out of line. Each horse pulls exactly one-third of the load. If horses could talk, this is the spreader they would choose.

When the "Rushville Special" Spreader goes into the field with a big load, there is hardly a bit increased draft on the horses when it begins to spread, and every foot of load that leaves the machine decreases the draft in proportion. Something that cannot be said of any other spreader on the market.

The fact that this spreader will turn in a short circle distributing at full feed a difficult load, proves that the traction is at least 100 per cent in excess of the average requirements. This means scientific handling of difficult material, because if the draft is on the beater wheel the horses will feel it. The time that a spreader becomes a horse-killer is when it is partly unloaded and the packed condition of the load clogs the beater wheel—something that never happens with our machine.

If horses could talk they would choose this spreader, because the wheels are mounted UNDER the load, and the front and rear wheels are close together. This means light draft—something that horses like.

Cincinnati to Cleveland and return (553 miles) in 15 hours, 45 minutes—Boston to Syracuse and return (693 miles) in 24 hours, 20 minutes, with a woman driving—
New York to Montreal (398 miles) in 9 hours, 59 minutes—Waterloo, Iowa, non-stop, dirt road record (865.4 miles) in 24 hours.

THE demonstrations of the roadability of the Franklin Car that have taken place all over the country are intended merely to call attention to this Franklin advantage—not to prove it. Its daily performance in the hands of its owners is doing that.

Yet the consistency with which Franklin Cars are making and breaking road records from point to point is significant to most motorists, for the cars used are stock models and differ in no way from the average Franklin.

Why Franklin Averages Fast Time

The above performances are feats only made possible by Franklin principles of light weight, flexibility, and correct balance. They make riding comfortable and handling easy and safe under all conditions. Rough stretches and sharp turns therefore do not slow the Franklin up as they do other cars.

And with heavy, rigid weight eliminated, delays due to tire accidents are almost unknown. These six runs mentioned produced only one puncture and no blowouts. In daily use the average is better: three punctures in the life of a complete set of tires—12,500 miles.

No Cooling Trouble Delays

Important in the making of these records is Franklin direct air cooling (no water to boil or freeze). Leaky radiators and over-heating never halt the Franklin.

Particularly of late, motorists are hearing much about light weight without seeing its results demonstrated. We shall be glad to show you, on the scales and on the road, what genuine light weight is and what it does.

20 miles to the gallon of gasoline 12,500 miles to the set of tires

The Plight of Newspapers

Very few people realize the newspaper shortage as it affects newspapers. Publication has been suspended by scores of papers but many more are facing such a possibility, many of them large and influential, since Canada has placed an embargo on newspaper.

The possibility of Canada taking this action has been hanging over the newspaper business for several months. On January 6 the governor-general of Canada signed an order authorizing the Canadian minister of customs to refuse export licenses to manufacturers of newspapers who did not comply with the orders of the paper controller. The paper controller by another order in council has the authority to requisition and distribute to Canadian newspapers, as a means of enforcing his orders.

That the shortage exists and is as serious in Canada as it is in the United States, is disclosed by the fact that the three daily newspapers in Winnipeg suspended publication Saturday. The three editorial staffs will unite in issuing a one-page paper containing only the most important news, which will be mailed to country post-offices and placed on bulletin boards there.

Canada can not be blamed for the step taken because 85 percent of the newspaper manufactured in Canada is exported. Canada has fostered and encouraged this class of manufacturing by leasing to the owners of plants at a modest rate, their right to the use of water power, as well as giving them the right to cut their pulp wood.

Newspapers which have been able to get a supply of newsprint have been compelled to pay outrageous prices because the law of supply and demand is working overtime in governing the price. Rather than do business at a loss and face inevitable suspension of publications, newspapers have raised advertising and subscription rates. Increases in advertising rates alone for the week ending January 5 amounted to twenty percent. This figure was based on a report from eighty-nine newspapers, published daily.

federal trade commission, issued January 1, consumption of newsprint in the United States during 1919, as compared with a similar period of 1918, shows an increase of 14%. During the fourth quarter of 1919 newsprint consumption was running up, according to the commission, and the increase over a similar period in 1918 would be 25 or 30 percent. December figures have not yet been tabulated.

In November, 1919, the 727 publishers reporting to the commission used 161,602 tons of newsprint, as compared with 123,874 tons November, 1918.

Newsprint production in 1919 exceeded that of 1918 by a little more than 8 percent and that of 1917 less than 1 percent, according to tentative statistics prepared by the federal trade commission for the past three years.

Production and shipment figures show that 15,565 tons were on hand at the mills at the start of 1919, as compared with 26,477 tons on January 1, 1918, and 26,477 tons on January 1, 1917. Production for the year, with December's amount estimated at 101,000 tons, approximated 1,352,736 tons, with shipments, December's total estimated at 110,500 tons, of about 1,356,308 tons.

A SAFE TEST

For those who are in need of a remedy for kidney troubles and backache, it is a good plan to try Doan's Kidney Pills. They are strongly recommended by Rushville people.

Geo. Priest, 223 W. 3rd St., Rushville, says: "I have been afflicted more or less with kidney trouble for several years. It came on me gradually and each day, I could notice that it was becoming worse. It started with a dull pain directly over my kidneys, dizzy spell followed and there seemed to be specks before my eyes. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended for such ailments and I got a box at Johnson's Drug Store. They proved to be the best medicine of the kind that I had ever used. In a short time they freed me from that distressing pain in my back and restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

OVER FIVE YEARS LATER, Mr. Priest said: "Whenever my kidneys bother me I get Doan's Kidney Pills and they always give me good results. My former endorsement still holds good."

"I. U." 100 YEARS OLD NEXT MAY

Next Year Marks End of Full Century of Progress For State University.

Indiana University will celebrate its centennial anniversary in the coming year.

One hundred years ago next May the first definite step toward the founding of Indiana University was taken when the General Assembly appointed a board of trustees and empowered them to buy land and erect thereon suitable buildings for a state seminary. These trustees were Jonathan Lindley, Charles Dewey, David H. Maxwell, John M. Jenkins, Jonathan Nichols and William Lane.

As a result of this legislation, the new seminary was opened in May, 1824. The building, only a temporary structure, was erected at the south end of College avenue where the old college, now the Junior high school, stands.

Changed to University.

Within three years it had made such progress in number of students and in the general character of its work that a board of visitors, appointed by the general assembly in 1827, recommended that the Indiana seminary be raised to the dignity of a college. Accordingly, by an act of the assembly, Jan. 24, 1828, the state seminary became Indiana College. In 1836 a more pretentious building was erected and in 1838 the name of the institution was again changed—this time to Indiana University.

The question of the relation of the state to the university arose in the constitutional convention of 1851. Since no explicit statement was incorporated in the constitution as adopted at the first meeting of the general assembly in 1852, an act was passed which may be regarded as the fourth charter of the university, and the one by which in the main it is still governed. This act provided for the government of the institution, the management of its funds, and the disposition of the lands thereof. Finally, the supreme court of the state in the case of Fisher vs. Bower, rendered a decision (June 24, 1902) in which these words were used: "The Indiana University is an integral part of our free school system; it was the special creation of the constitution; the university as well as its endowment has always been under the supervision of the state."

Library Burns Twice.

In 1854 the new building, with its entire contents in the form of libraries and collections, was destroyed by fire. The friends of the university came to its assistance and another and better building was erected. This structure, one of the most picturesque in Bloomington, is now known as the Old College. It was purchased by the board of education of the city of Bloomington in 1897. In 1874 a second large building of design similar to that of the old college was erected for the libraries and museum; but in a second fire, in 1893, this building was destroyed with all its contents.

The fire of 1893 marked a turning point in the history of the institution. It was decided to remove the university to a more ample site, away from the noise and disturbance of the railway. For this purpose the tract known as Dunn's woods was purchased, east of the city, facing what is now Indiana avenue on the west, and Third street on the south.

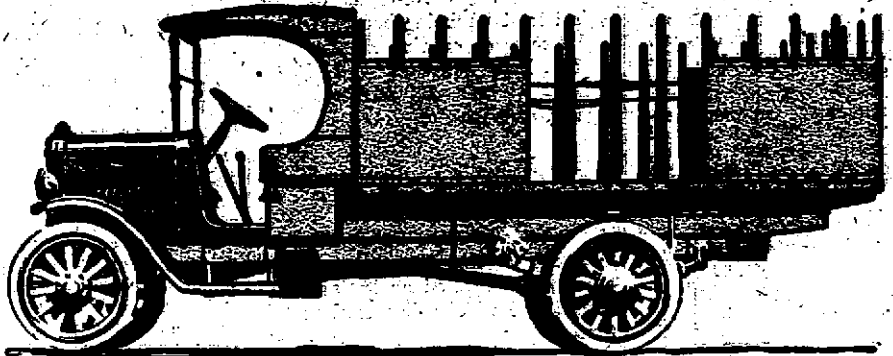

The chief university buildings form three sides of a quadrangle on the crest of the campus proper. Beginning with the one nearest the Kirkwood entrance, they are as follows: The Library building, erected in 1907, containing at present 128,383 volumes and increasing at the rate of about 6,000 volumes a year; the Student building, 1906; Maxwell hall, 1890, occupied by the administrative offices and the School of Law, is named for Doctor James H. Maxwell and for his son, Doctor James D. Maxwell; Owen hall, named for Richard Owen, geologist and professor of natural science from 1863 to 1879; Wylie hall, 1884, named in honor of Doctor Andrew Wylie, the first president of Indiana University; Kirkwood hall, 1894; Science hall, 1902; and Biology hall, 1910. The newest building on the campus is the fine men's gymnasium, completed in 1917.

However, the need for new buildings, especially a new dormitory for the girls, is very great. Indiana University has an increase of more than six hundred students this year as well as a large number of new teachers.

I. U. Has Odd Ailments.

Whatever else may be said about Indiana University, it can't be said that it takes a back seat in many things (excepting possibly football) and now the state institution comes to the front with an odd disease which has prevailed for some time but which is now abating. "False angina" sounds more like the name of a "movie" or perhaps a dime novel (now 35c) than the name of a disease, yet that is the ailment that afflicted more than 100 students recently.

Dr. J. E. P. Holland, University physician says the disease has now been entirely eradicated from the university.

QUICK AND ECONOMICAL TRANSPORTATION

THE way it transmits power with a minimum of loss from motor to driving wheels is one reason owners give for the satisfactory performance of the internal gear drive axle in Nash trucks.

What big business thinks of Nash trucks is evidenced by the fact that they are now serving such concerns as: The Standard Oil Company, The Palmolive Company, Morris & Company, The American Steel Foundries, and others.

Amusements

"Miss Crusoe" at Mystic

Virginia Hammond, one of the most popular players on the stage, will be seen in "Miss Crusoe," the latest World release at the Mystic theatre Tuesday. Miss Hammond, who will be remembered for her splendid work in "The Battler," in which she was co-star with Earl Metcalfe, was a former leading lady for E. H. Sothern in "If I Were King" and several of Mr. Sothern's Shakespearian productions.

In "Miss Crusoe" she does excellent work, the best she has yet done in pictures those who have seen this picture say.

"The Dark Star" at Princess

Marion Davies who does the finest work of her screen career in the film version of that famous Robert W. Chambers story, "The Dark Star," which comes to the Princess theatre tonight, began to dance almost as soon as she began to work and her record as a dancer is almost as great as the one she holds undisputed as a beauty whose physical perfections have been internationally acclaimed by the world's greatest masters of the brush.

In "The Dark Star," Miss Davies has a role of exceptional force, that of a girl who is supposedly under the influence of an evil planet. The supporting players are numerous and all are well known in the screen world. The leading members of the cast include Norman Kerry, Matt Moore, Dorothy Green and G. Butler Clonbough.

ONE-FOURTH WORLD'S
WOMEN IN CHINA

Seventy Per Cent. Employees in Shanghai Cotton Mills Women and Children Working Twelve Hour Shifts.

One-fourth of the women in the world are Chinese—200,000,000 of them. They are going into industry in large numbers to work long hours and for little money.

In Shanghai, for instance, seventy per cent. of the employees in the cotton mills are women and children. Working hours for spinners are from six in the morning until six at night and from six at night until six in the morning. Weavers work from 5:30 in the morning until seven at night and the wages are from ten to twenty cents a day. Hundreds of women are employed in silk filature mills, standing four after hour washing cocoons in basins of boiling water in the excessively hot rooms necessary for apartments where fine silk is spun. In Canton alone, there are 150,000 women in factories at a maximum wage of forty cents a day for women and of fifteen cents a day for girls.

As part of its program of world service for women the National Young Women's Christian Association is expecting to put on its staff of secretaries in China an expert on industrial conditions who will develop social work in factories, and work to improve conditions for women employees. This work will include the introduction of recreation and social life among the workers and of health lectures and educational classes.

Y. W. C. A. STUDENTS
TEACHING IN CHINA

Physical Training School Maintained in Shanghai.

The vast majority of Chinese men remember their mothers as cripples. Many a girl wanders into a mission school who has not had her own feet bound, but has never seen a woman of her own class who could walk, and, therefore, she walks in a most ungainly fashion—scarcely conscious of her natural feet.

The Chinese Medical Association—an Association composed only of Chinese physicians mostly graduates from American and English institutions—have asked the entire educated community of the country to co-operate in better health for the children of China. All the Mission Boards operating in China felt that one of the greatest contributions the Young Women's Christian Association could offer to the health of China would be to establish a normal school for the training of physical directors.

Accordingly, in Shanghai, which is the greatest port in China, the national committee established such a school in 1914. The school has won favor with all educationists, both missionary and government. There have already been nine graduates from this school. Miss Ying Mei Chun, a graduate of the Wellesley School of Physical Education, has been dean of the school. Graduates of the school are scattered from Canton to Peking, teaching with conspicuous success in twelve mission and government schools.

NEED FOR MEMORIAL MUSEUM FELT AT INDIANA UNIVERSITY

Bloomington, Ind., — Theodore Roosevelt's work as a naturalist was much discussed during the campaign for his memorial, but it is little known that Indiana University has the honor of housing one of his early collections of birds.

As a young man, Roosevelt was much interested in the collection of birds that frequented the country near his home. After a time this collection was sold, after being divided into small lots, one of which the university was fortunate enough to obtain. The local collection consists of seventy-five specimens, including a kingfisher, gull, owl, bluebird, duck, woodpecker and numerous other small birds.

For lack of an adequate museum this collection is now housed in the dingy basement of Biology hall and is not readily accessible. Each specimen is labeled in the former president's handwriting.

At the time the collection was purchased, no thought was given to the prominence of the collector but only to the value of the skins, and now the suggestion is made that a Roosevelt Memorial Museum should be provided for the university by either a private endowment or through state aid.

TOWN OF ST. PAUL TO

HARNESS FLATROCK

Plan is to Build Big Dam and Use Water Power for Engineering Purposes

ESTIMATED COST $300,000

St. Paul, Ind., Jan. 19—Competent engineers, after a thorough investigation report that immense power can be derived from the Flatrock at St. Paul, and that harnessing this great power is an investment certain of rich returns.

This good news was brought to St. Paul and the report given in detail to the directors at a meeting of the board of the St. Paul Electric Light & Power Co. on Wednesday afternoon.

This means great things for St. Paul.

And the company officials are now investigating, with a view of first making secure, the marketing of the great power possible to be derived here.

As outlined by the engineers a 37 foot dam would be put in, with 32 foot fall, somewhere in the vicinity of where Mill Creek enters Flat Rock. Above this would be formed a lake of about 15 miles of water front. Power is estimated of about 6,000,000 kilowatts in a ten months run. A power plant would be erected here. About 800 acres of flood rights would have to be bought. The total cost or investment necessary is estimated at not less than $300,000.

Mrs. Walter Has Gained 20 Pounds

Six Years of Stomach Trouble Ended by Taking Tanlac—Strong as Ever, Now

"By the help of Tanlac I am rid of a case of stomach trouble that made life miserable for five years, and I have gained twenty pounds in weight," said Mrs. M. Walter, who resides at 203 West Mulberry St., Bloomington, Ill. Continuing, she said:

"I had an extremely poor appetite and would have to force down what little I did manage to eat, and even this would cause me intense misery. I would bloat something awful and my heart would palpitate so badly it would frighten me, and I also had great difficulty in breathing at times. I would also have such cramping pains in my stomach I could hardly stand them. I was troubled a great deal with my kidneys and I would just almost scream with pain that would start in the small of my back and seem to work up under my shoulder blades. I could get but little sleep as I could lie in no position in which I would not be in misery. Loss of sleep and pain and lack of nourishment soon caused me to lose weight until I was scarcely more than a frame and I was so weak I could do hardly any of my housework. I would also have terrible splitting headaches and would become so dizzy at times I would have to catch hold of something or sit down to keep from falling. Well, I just dragged out year after year in this terrible condition without being able to find anything to help me, although I had tried every kind of treatment and medicine I could hear of, and had become very much discouraged, when one day I met a friend of mine I had not seen before in six months and who the last time I saw her was in an awful bad condition and suffering terribly, but who now was a perfect picture of health and looked at least twenty years younger. She declared she was well and that she owed it all to Tanlac, and advised me to try it.

"I took her advice and began taking Tanlac, and I want to say right here it is the grandest medicine on earth in my opinion. I soon had a fine appetite and could eat anything I wanted without suffering any bad after effects, and I was never troubled with gas or palpitation of the heart. I continued taking it until I am a healthy woman again. My kidneys never bother me at all and the pains in my back have entirely left me, and I have not had the headache or those dizzy spells since I started taking Tanlac. I am as strong as I ever was in my life and can do all my housework with the greatest ease. If I could get Tanlac I wouldn't care whether there was any other medicine in the world, for I have such faith in it I don't believe I would ever need anything else."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson & Co.; in Milroy by Dallas Copper; in Manilla by Geo. J. Bulow; and in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis.—(Adv.)

WEEK'S CAMPAIGN NETS 24 PRISONERS IN THE R. V. SIPE CASE

Reinforcements From Indianapolis Aid Materially in Salvation Army Campaign Sunday

HOME GUARDS ALL RECRUITED

The first week of the advance movement of the local infantry of the Salvation Army has passed into history and while there were only minor operations in which skirmishes and patrols were sent out, Captain Tench is pleased to report that 24 prisoners were captured. Seven of these were captured last night. The loss so far has been two missing, one captured and is held in one of the enemy's internment camps. No stone will be left unturned to liberate the captured one, "for he whom the Son sets free is free indeed."

The reinforcements from Indianapolis rendered splendid services and were a large factor in the victories of yesterday.

Tonight the Shelbyville artillery will open up a barrage sharp at 7:30 and it is expected that a number of prisoners will be taken.

Rushville has recruited to full strength for her Home Guards but there is still plenty of room for those who wish to enlist for active service at the front. "Don't be a slacker, be a fighter," advocates Capt. Tench.

LOCALS LOSE BY TEN POINTS AT NEWCASTLE

Would Have Won Game But Frazee Was Taken Out and Newcastle Jumped Ahead

WILL GET REVENGE HERE

The local high school was defeated Saturday night at Newcastle by a margin of ten points, the score being 23 to 13. When the first half ended the score was tied 6 to 6, and in the last half Frazee, Rushville's star backguard, was thrown out of the game because of personal fouls.

When Frazee was taken out, the score was 11 to 9 in favor of Newcastle and ten minutes was left to play. From this time on Newcastle climbed up and made the 23 points. The locals are confident of winning from Newcastle here Wednesday night.

Much interest centers on the game here Saturday night when Anderson will play here. This team is classed above Franklin, and from the high score run up on Milroy, the locals will exert their best to keep their opponents from piling up too big a score.

GRANTS CONTINUANCE WILL GIVE THREE ACT PLAY

Judge Ewbank Allows State More Time in Proceedings Filed by Former Orange Boy

MILITIA ILLEGAL, HE SAYS

A continuance was granted by Judge L. B. Ewbank in Marion circuit court in Indianapolis Saturday, the habeas corpus proceedings filed by Richard V. Sipe, former Orange boy, to prevent the execution of a sentence of five days, confinement at the state penal farm imposed by a state militia court martial for alleged failure to report for duty during the steel strike in the Calumet region.

The continuance was granted to allow the state time to amend the return to the plaintiff's writ. Attorneys for the plaintiff, at the hearing Saturday, attacked the constitutionality of the organization of the militia, maintaining that the national guard is the only body of troops authorized to function for the state. They asserted the militia is actually prohibited by federal statutes.

Attorneys representing the state contended that the militia was legally organized and that legislation providing for the national guard also applied to militia organizations.

You Should Read Advertisements for Your Own Profit

There was a time, when you had to take some advertisements with a grain of salt. That was because few advertisers thought they could sell goods better by misrepresenting them. Those advertisers have either gone out of business or mended their ways long ago. They learned by hard experience that it did not pay.

There were other advertisers who proved that the only way to advertise successfully, make regular customers and build good will, was to tell the absolute truth about their goods in their advertisements.

Today, practically all advertisers are of too high character to permit an untruth to appear over their names.

When a company advertises to you, it is trying to get you for a permanent customer. It has goods that it is sure will be of real value to you. It tells you the truth about those goods.

To learn the facts about the things you need to make you a useful, comfortable and happy citizen, learn them by reading the advertisements.
